Abby LARSON

STYLE ME PRETTY

"It's the ideal combination of gorgeousness and fun, and every time we go, we hope we never have to leave. If you're up for a bit of a drive, hit up RUM POINT. It's an iconic beach bar, and you can watch the sunset while sipping something fruity. Win-win in my book."

Marcy BLUM

MARCY BLUM + ASSOCIATES

"I love the Cayman Islands for so many reasons, mostly because it's a real place with real people who live and work there so it doesn't feel 'manufactured.' There's a wonderful upbeat and happy vibe there and the water is exquisite. I have gone swimming with the stingrays several times, something I doubt I would do anywhere else; but the magic of the place is infectious. I've had some wonderful meals there as well, two favorites: CAYMAN CABANA which was pretty and delicious and, of course, Eric Ripert's elegant and celebratory BLUE..."

"The natural beauty and the island's infrastructure as it relates to events are among the many reasons to host a wedding in the Cayman Islands. The Cayman water is amongst the most beautiful I have seen in the world. It provides an extraordinary backdrop to beachside celebrations. While maintaining the small-town charm of the islands, Cayman has professionals on-island who provide a high level of sophistication required to execute the wishes of even the most discriminating clients."

ENGAGING EVENTS BY ALI

"I have had the pleasure of working on this island for two weddings, and the food, service and warm welcome from everyone we worked with made this such a special island to host a destination wedding. SEVEN MILE BEACH is one of the most wonderful sunset-watching spots I've ever seen. The island offers so much to do, from boating and fishing to golf, shopping, and dining on of the finest cuisine in the Caribbean. Don't miss having rum punch at Rum Point and swinging in the hammock following a visit to STINGRAY CITY. Oh, and tacos at SUNSHINE GRILL! Perfection!"

MICHELLE RAGO DESTINATIONS

"It has the unique balance of being sophisticated yet completely immersed in local culture. You can have your wedding in a beautiful ballroom or get married on a sand bar surrounded by stingrays. Some of my best days have been spent on SEVEN MILE BEACH, hanging out with friends under a shady cabana until the sun disappeared over the horizon—magic!"

BRIAN WORLEY VENTURES

"Spending a free afternoon jet skiing around the island, even in the rain, was one of the most fun adrenaline outings I've had in the Caribbean. A visit to STINGRAY CITY is always great—I love the opportunity to spend time with those stunning creatures. But what tops the list is just hanging around with a bunch of friends, sharing a few cocktails in the ocean—that's the kind of magic only the right setting provides!"

TROPICAL OCCASIONS

"The décor and floral options are amazing compared to many other islands, and the local services are some of the best found in the Caribbean. Lodging echoes this, with choices in all price ranges from gorgeous five-star properties to such cute, affordable options. My favorite part about Cayman Islands is the locals. They are helpful, genuine and just all-around happy people." @tropical_os

Susan Moynihan

THE HONEYMOONIST

"They have one of the best food scenes in the Caribbean! Plus, the scuba diving is top-notch, and you don't have to travel far offshore to see great sights. Best of all, no matter how often I visit, I always find something new to surprise me—it's the perfect combination of familiar and unexpected, and always restorative and joyful."

BRIDAL BAR

"One of my favorite experiences in a destination was in Grand Cayman, kayaking at night with the BIOLUMINESCENCE PHENOMENON, which literally lit up the dark waters as we paddled through. It's such a special experience, perfect for honeymooners and families and it's one of the few places in the world you get to experience the glow!"
